TOGETHER WE ROCK! COMES TO (insert place/organization)

"We are all pioneers in our efforts to build an inclusive and accessible community for all citizens," says presenter John Draper, whose leadership development business is located in Oshawa, Ontario.

Draper will be presenting at (location) on (day, date and time) to (identify group).

Draper draws on his life experiences as he challenges individuals and organizations to work together to create communities that are inclusive of and accessible to individuals who have a disability. His presentation is both highly entertaining and informative and leaves audiences laughing, educated and motivated to act.

Draper's skilful use of adaptive computer technology enables audiences to enjoy a presentation that delivers a message using a powerful and memorable approach. Draper has presented to a wide range of audiences at community, provincial, national and international venues.

John Draper is a journalism graduate from Durham College in Oshawa. During his post-secondary career, he was the recipient of the Words+ Scholarship from the International Society for Augmentative and Alternative Communication and the Joublin Scholarship from the Toronto Community Foundation. In recognition of his efforts to promote inclusive and accessible communities, Draper received the Glenn Crombie Memorial Award from the College Committee on Disability Issues (Ontario) and the Lisa Christine Evans Memorial Scholastic Achievement Award (U.S.) for "altruistic efforts to enlighten minds and enhance the future of education" in 2005.
